

The Case for Investing in Canada

Private Debt Partners

Source: Global Affairs Canada, December 2020

Open for Business

Canada consistently ranks within the top 3 best countries for doing business in the G20. Further, Canada has ranked first among OECD countries for its attractiveness to entrepreneurs, demonstrating its robust business environment.

Economist Intelligence Unit, November 2020,
OECD Indicators of Talent Attractiveness, May 2019

In spite of COVID-19, Canada's economy is expected to rebound and grow by 5.2% in 2021.

Finance Canada, 2020 Economic and Fiscal Snapshot

5.2%

Canada's marginal effective tax rate, which measures the estimated taxation on a new business investment, is the lowest among G7 countries at 13.7%.

Finance Canada, 2020 Economic and Fiscal Snapshot

13.7%

Fiscally and Globally Sound

Canada retains a triple A credit rating post-COVID.
S&P Global, July 2020

Canada is the most democratic country in the G20.
Economist Intelligence Unit, Democracy Index 2019

Canada ranks third among the G20 countries in political stability.

World Bank; World Governance Indicators 2019

Canada has access to nearly two thirds of the world's GDP through trade agreements, including preferential access to the U.S market.

Global Affairs Canada, January 2020

Educated, Innovative, Happy

Canada has the most educated talent pool in the OECD, with 59.4% adult tertiary education attainment compared to the average of 37.7% and 31.9% in OECD and G20 nations, respectively.

OECD, Education at a Glance, September 2020

Toronto, Vancouver, Ottawa, and Montreal rank within the top 16 Tech Talent markets in North America.

CBRE Tech Report, July 2020

Canada ranks in the top five OECD countries for its living conditions and quality of life and was listed as Best Overall Country in 2021.

OECD Better Life Index 2017, U.S. News Best Countries Ranking 2021

www.privatedebt.com

Private Debt Partners

Canada remains a competitive option for domestic and foreign investment due to its favourable business environment, fiscal and political stability, and developed labour pool.

Private Debt Partners provides foreign investors with direct access to Canada's robust mid-market: 1.2M small and medium enterprises make up the backbone of the Canadian economy, contributing 50% of economic business sector output.

